HIGH SCHOOL MATH TOURNAMENT SCHEDULED

Shelton State will host the 1982 high school math tournament on Saturday, April 27. Camille Cochrane is chairman of the event.

ATTENTION HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS ELIGIBLE FOR SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS

High school seniors eligible for Social Security benefits for college must be registered as a full-time college student as of May 1.

In order to serve these students, Shelton State has designed a special program, Life Skills (PY 101-N), Personal Health (PE-270P) plus another additional course of the student's choice.

It is extremely important for potential Social Security recipients to register at Shelton State TODAY, MARCH 22. If you have any questions concerning the program, contact Dr. Randall Jarrell.

MUSIC STUDENTS CAST IN "THE MAGIC FLOWER GARDEN"

Two Shelton students, Dewin Tibbs and Mary Fleming, were cast in Mu Phi Epsilon's production of "The Magic Flower Garden" by Harry Phillips, University of Alabama professor, last week in Morgan Hall.

"The Flower Garden" is designed for all who are young at heart. Proceeds from the production will go to scholarships at the University of Alabama and Stillman College.

ROSALIND CONNOR, MISS SHELTON STATE 1981, WILL APPEAR ON THE PHIL DONAHUE SHOW ON MARCH 30 AT 8 AM. MAYBE WE CAN ALL WATCH OUR MOST ILLUSTRIOUS ALUMNUS.

INTRAMURAL TENNIS

Shelton State tennis players have an exciting opportunity this spring to participate in an intramural round-robin for men and women during the month of April and early May. This single elimination tournament will determine the Shelton State men and women champion.

In order to enter, each player must have his own racket and playable balls and have flexible free hours to arrange one match each week. Players must be familiar with the rules and procedures of playing tennis.

Students must register with Susan Graves by 3 p.m. on March 30. At the time of registration, students must have a copy of their class and work schedule as well as telephone numbers at which they can be reached.

PTK RECEIVES NATIONAL HONOR

Shelton's chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, national junior college honorary, received national recognition at the national convention recently. The chapter received the Award of Excellence, one of five chapters across the country to receive this award. This award is given to chapters who have made exemplary contributions to the overall excellence and standards of the fraternity. Shelton is the first chapter to win it after such a short period of existence.

While hosting the state convention in January, the Shelton chapter published a literary magazine, Hidden Images, containing material written by the state's college students.

Officers for the Shelton chapter of PTK are: Tommy Matthews, president; Tommy Vaughn, vice-president; Felicia Ayers Walker, secretary. Sponsors of the group are Debbie Grimes and Guesna Dohrman.

FORESTRY SUMMER CAMP AT AUBURN

Students planning to major in forest management or forest engineering and transferring to Auburn are required to attend the forestry summer camp. This camp is a prerequisite to all junior and senior level forestry courses. Contact May Ann Z Thomas in counseling center for details.
